

FIRST RESPONDER AWARENESS

Hazardous Material Management

DESCRIPTION

First responders at the awareness level are individuals who are likely to witness or discover a hazardous substance release and who have been trained to initiate an emergency response sequence by notifying the proper authorities of the release. They would take no further action beyond notifying the authorities of the release. This course covers broad issues pertaining to the hazard recognition at work sites. This course, while identifying different types of hazards, also suggests possible precautions and protective measures to reduce or eliminate hazards at the work place.

COURSE LEARNING OBJECTIVES

- Understand the role of a first responder
- Develop and execute action plan
- Report the spill or release and call for additional resources
- Protect self and others
- Secure the area

THIS COURSE SHOULD BE COMPLETED BY: Property Managers , Facility Engineers, and anyone who works in a facility that contains hazardous material.
